Church Family,

As we enter the end of the Levitical Law of Moses, my heart is always a little relieved and disappointed. A long time ago my Mother said that leaving some of these books of the Old Testament is like leaving an old friend. We might want to leave after we have had our fill, but we end up missing them once they are gone.

The reason why I miss reading the Levitical Law of Moses in many ways stems from what the Law is at its core. The Law is the picture of the holy standard of righteousness. It is the picture of God's character on display for the world to see. While none of us can meet this standard, Christ met it for us and imputed His righteousness onto us. We are found righteous and in compliance with all the impossible expectations of Leviticus through Jesus. Praise God!

Rejoice and boast in Jesus Christ our Lord with appreciation this week. Let not the Levitical Law of Moses drag heavily on your Spirit since it is a reminder of Christ's completed work.

In Christ,
Bro. Les
